THIS EVENT IS A FITTING TRIBUTE TO A RESPECTED LOCAL ATHLETE

Lyndon Ellefson, a Barron native, died July 10, 1998 after falling into a deep crevasse while making a training run in the Italian Alps. Lyndon, 39, was the son of Nyles and Ruth Ellefson, and a 1977 graduate of Barron High School. Lyndon lived in Vail, CO with his wife Tashina and their two sons, Sylvan and Kjell. He was scheduled to compete in the Skyrunning World Championship in Cervania, Italy, on July 12, 1998. He was also looking forward to the World Mountain Running Championships on Reunion Island off the coast of Africa, set for September 14, 1998, and another Skymarathon in Tibet in October 1998. It is an honor to hold this race in his memory.
